Mayor Tom Barrett issued the following statement regarding today's approval of City agreements with Ingeteam and Talgo:

“With today’s Council action, Milwaukee is moving in a very positive direction with hundreds of new jobs in growing industries. We are enthusiastic about the future of both Ingeteam and Talgo, and we appreciate the investments both companies are making in Milwaukee.

Alderman Willie Wade deserves significant credit for his vision and his hard work in securing these new businesses and jobs in our city. I offer my thanks to him and to everyone involved in these additions to our economy.”
